

ASH GREEN WEEKLY NEWS

30 November 2018

PRIMARY SCHOOL

Next week at Ash Green we start off with Save the Planet assemblies on Tuesday morning. 4W will travel to Eden Camp on Thursday and spend the day experiencing the sights and sounds of the Blitz. Also on Thursday, Year 2 parents are invited to spend the afternoon in their children's classes for Mr Tumnus' tea party. We end the week on Friday with our Scientist of the Term awards and our Celebration assemblies— KS2 at 9.05am – Reception and KS1 at 2.50pm – all welcome.

Christmas Fair

Thanks

We had a hugely successful Christmas Fair last Saturday 24 November.

Over 300 people attended and had a great time. We raised around £1500 which will all go directly to the children through treats, resources and subsidies for trips.

Thanks to all on the Friends of Ash Green (and other volunteers) for their tireless work and for site staff for their support (and much time) on the day.

Thank you all for your support.

SUPERHERO

DIABETES UK

For Diabetes Awareness week we had a special assembly about the signs and symptoms of diabetes on the Wednesday.

On the Friday we had a Superheroes Day where our children and staff dressed up.

Thank you to all parents and children who helped to raise £200 for Diabetes UK and Children in Need.

Harrison Womersley Jennings:
Reached his first year anniversary on Tuesday 27 November.

Bake Off Thanks!

A big thank you to all parents and children who joined our Bake Off this week.

There were some brilliant cakes and designs to choose from.

All money raised will go towards 'Go Orange for Orangutans' at Chester Zoo.
